SECTION I: Elaborating your information (Provide supporting ideas and details)

Provide examples of the following:

There are some traditions or beliefs related to nature.

Your Answer:

Let me think... I think so because each country has its own traditions or beliefs related to nature. For example, here in Peru we have the Pachamama and It is a fertility goddess who presides over the sowing and harvesting. People in Peru don't reject their traditions because they respect their ancestors. It's important to remember that the Pachamama display us that we need to take care of the land and crops.

Question 3

SECTION I: Elaborating your information (Provide supporting ideas and details)

Provide examples of the following:

Some changes that could happen when two cultures meet

Your Answer:

I would like to stress that there are some changes. For example, when two cultures meet, this triggers that one of them feels isolated by not knowing things about the other culture and maybe this doesn't ensure that they have a first impression of the other. I really hope that by 2060 cultures will have gotten many information about the other culture because they used the internet more that other years.
